Privacy Policy for Matrix Health Solutions a Division of Wellness Systems Inc.

Privacy of personal information is an important principle to Matrix Health Solutions. We are committed to collecting, using and disclosing personal information responsibly and only to the extent necessary for the goods and services we provide. We try to be open and transparent about how we handle personal information. This document describes our privacy policies.

What is Personal Health Information?

Personal health information is information about an identifiable individual. Personal health information includes information that relates to:

- the physical or mental health of the individual (including family health history);
- the provision of health care to the individual (including identifying the individual's health care provider);
- a plan of service under the Home care and Community Services Act, 1994;
- payments
- the identification of the individuals' substitute decision maker.

Who We Are

Our organization, Matrix Health Solutions, includes at the time of writing, a total of 8 professionals and support staff. We use a number of consultants and agencies that may, in the course of their duties, have limited access to personal health information we hold. These include computer consultants, office maintenance, bookkeepers and accountants, lawyers, credit card companies, website managers and cleaners. We restrict their access to any personal information we hold as much as is reasonably possible. We also have their assurance that they follow appropriate privacy principles.

Why We Collect Personal Health Information

We collect, use and disclose personal information in order to serve our clients. For our clients, the primary purpose for collecting personal health information is to provide health care services. For example, we collect information about a client's health history, physical condition and function in order to help us assess what their health needs are, to advise them of their options and then to provide the health care they choose to have. A second primary purpose is to obtain a baseline of health information so that in providing ongoing health services we can identify changes that occur over time.

We also collect, use and disclose personal health information for purposes related to or secondary to our primary purposes. The most common examples of our related and secondary purposes are as follows:

Related Purpose #1: To obtain payment for services or goods provided from the individual or others.

Related Purpose #2: To conduct quality improvement and risk management activities. We review client files to ensure that we provide high quality services, including the education of our staff. External consultants (e.g. auditors, lawyers, practice consultants) may conduct audits and quality improvement reviews on our behalf.

Related Purpose #3: To promote our clinic, new services, educational events and opportunities (e.g. a seminar or conference) that we have available. We will always obtain express consent from the client prior to collecting or handling personal health information for this purpose.

Related Purpose #4: To comply with external regulators. Our professionals are regulated by Colleges who may inspect our records, conduct audits and interview our staff as a part of their regulatory activities in the public interest. The Colleges have their own strict confidentiality and privacy obligations. In addition, as professionals, we will report serious misconduct, incompetence or incapacity of other practitioners, whether they belong to other organizations or our own. Also, our organization believes that it should report information suggesting illegal behaviour to the authorities. In addition, we may be required by law to disclose personal health information to various government agencies (e.g. Ministry of Health, children's aid societies, Canada Customs and Revenue Agency, Information and Privacy Commissioner, etc.).

Related Purpose #5: To educate our staff and students. We value the education and development of future and current professionals. We will review applicable client records for education purposes regarding Matrix Repatterning.

Protecting Personal Information

We understand the importance of protecting personal information. For that reason, we have taken the following steps:

- Paper information is either under supervision or secured in a locked or restricted area.
- Electronic hardware is either under supervision or secured in a locked or restricted area at all times. In addition, strong passwords are used on all computers and mobile devices.
- Personal health information is only stored on mobile devices if necessary. All personal contact information stored on mobile devices is protected by strong encryption.
- We try to avoid taking personal health information home. However, when we do so, we transport, use and store the personal health information securely.
- Paper information is transferred through sealed, addressed envelopes or boxes by reputable companies with strong privacy policies.
- Electronic information is either anonymized or encrypted before being transmitted.
- Our staff members are trained to collect, use and disclose personal information only as necessary to fulfill their duties and in accordance with our privacy policy.
- We do not post any personal information about our clients on social media sites and our staff members are trained on the appropriate use of social media sites.
- External consultants and agencies with access to personal information must enter into privacy agreements with us.

Retention and Destruction of Personal Information

We need to retain personal information for some time to ensure that we can answer any questions about the services provided and for our own accountability to external regulatory bodies. However, in order to protect your privacy, we do not want to keep personal information for too long.

We keep our client files for at least ten years from the date of the last client interaction or from the date the client turns 18.

We destroy paper files containing personal health information by cross-cut shredding. We destroy electronic information by deleting it in a manner that it cannot be restored. When hardware is discarded, we ensure that the hardware is physically destroyed or the data is erased or overwritten in a manner that the information cannot be recovered.

You Can Look at Your Records

With only a few exceptions, you have the right to see what personal information we hold about you by contacting our Information Officer, Stephanie Congiusti. We can help you identify what records we might have about you. We will also try to help you understand any information you do not understand (e.g., short forms, technical language, etc.). We will need to confirm your identity, if we do not know you, before providing you with this access. We reserve the right to charge $30.00 for the first twenty pages of records and 25 cents for each additional page.

We will ask you to put your request in writing. We will respond to your request as soon as possible and generally within 30 days, if at all possible. If we cannot give you access, we will tell you the reason.

If you believe there is a mistake in the information, you have the right to ask for it to be corrected. This applies to factual information and not to any professional opinions we may have formed. We may ask you to provide documentation that our files are incorrect. Where we agree that we made a mistake we will make the correction. At your request and where it is reasonably possible, we will notify anyone to whom we sent this information (but we may deny your request if it would not reasonably have an effect on the ongoing provision of health care). If we do not agree that we have made a mistake, we will still agree to include in our file a brief statement from you on the matter.

If there is a Privacy Breach

While we will take precautions to avoid any breach of your privacy, if there is a loss, theft or unauthorized access of your personal health information we will notify you.

Upon learning of a possible or known breach, we will take the following steps:

- We will contain the breach to the best of our ability, by taking the following steps
 - Retrieve hard copies of personal health information that have been disclosed
 - Ensure to the best of our knowledge that no copies have been made
 - Take steps to prevent unauthorized access to electronic information (e.g., change passwords, restrict access, temporarily shut down system)

- We will notify affected individuals
 - We will provide our contact information in case the individual has further questions
 - We will provide the Commissioner's contact information
- We will investigate and remediate the problem, by:
 - Conducting an internal investigation
 - Determining what steps should be taken to prevent further breaches (e.g. changes to policies, additional safeguards)
 - Ensuring staff is appropriately trained and conduct further training if required

Depending on the circumstances of the breach, we may notify and work with the Information and Privacy Commissioner of Ontario. In addition, we may report the breach to the relevant regulatory College if we believe that it was the result of professional misconduct, incompetence or incapacity.

Do You Have Questions or Concerns?

Our Information Officer, Stephanie Congiusti can be reached at:
